

Baltic Journal of European Studies, Journal published by Tallinn University of Technology

Call for contributions

Baltic Journal of European Studies (abbreviation BJES) is a semiannual peer-reviewed international research journal (formerly known as Proceedings of the Institute for European Studies) with an international editorial office and extensive international editorial board, abstracted in EBSCO databases. The scope of the journal comprises a wide spectrum of social, political, legal and cultural issues related to recent developments in the European Union and its member states, such as:

- Current societal, economic and cultural issues in the EU and its member states
- Results of EU-related empirical social studies
- Theoretical issues related to the development of EU identity
- EU-related legal issues
- History of EU
- Book reviews

We kindly encourage members of the academic community to contribute to our journal. Papers submitted to the forthcoming issues will be reviewed by outstanding specialists of the particular field under the strict supervision of the international editorial board.

The regular deadline for submissions to the spring issue is February 15th and the regular deadline for the autumn issue is September 15th.

Requirements for the articles are as follows:

- The article should be in English, meet the general criteria set for a research paper;
- The desirable length of the article should not exceed 15 pages in the case of font size 12 and 1.5 line spacing (or 32,000 characters with no spaces or 4,500 words);
- The article should contain a short abstract (max 300 words) and keywords (max 10);
- References to the literature must meet the criteria of Harvard system of citation used by most scientific journals (see also <http://www.usq.edu.au/extrfiles/business/journals/HRMJJournal/Harvard%20Referencing.htm> or <http://www.i-cite.bham.ac.uk/Harvard.shtml>).

If you are interested in having your research paper published in our journal, please send it to the following address: BJES@tseba.ttu.ee